Merry Christmas and Happy New Years!

Message from the President:

Da Prez,

Hello fellow archers. Hunting season is in full swing and once again I have a pocket full of unused tags.

I hope this newsletter finds everyone in good health and spirits. I, like many others are looking forward to family gatherings, cooler weather (no mosquitos), and the canvas paintings of the colors of fall.

Now comes the challenge of second helpings and desserts, also what to do with the extra idle time. Hunt, sleep hunt, watch sports, hunt, eat hunt, so many decisions.

Once again TBoT was invited to help guide the annual Youth hunt at the Bugscuffle Ranch. Great times, new friends, old friends it was a hoot!

If anyone can be a part of a youth hunt, weather it be your own children (or borrowed ones), please don't let it pass! Lots of fun and satisfaction.

Have a very Merry Christmas and PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR TROOPS!

Wm. H. (Bud) Murphy Jr

A note from your secretary,

Well, I've found out one thing this fall...turkeys are a challenge! I had a blast at H Bar H while "trying to turkey hunt". It wasn't for lack of birds or opportunity. I did, however, harvest my first whitetail buck with my Recurve while turkey hunting (or trying to). And proud I am of the 15" 8 point. I have been blessed with such an exciting and rewarding year. I owe such thanks to my hubbie Bryant, for his help and encouragement.

I hope you all are enjoying the season and looking forward to the Holidays.

Mark your calendars for the HCS date and make your reservations early if you need accommodations.

A pre-registration form will be available in the next issue. Keep watch on our shoot schedule as we will be adding dates as they are confirmed.

Take care!!

TRADITIONAL ARCHERY AT CELTIC FESTIVAL
Takin' It Outside The Box

By: Debra Weaver

The first annual Celtic Festival and Highland Games was an overwhelming success. On September 23rd and 24th, 2011, more than six thousand people braved the sweltering Texas heat to attend the event held at the Sherwood Forrest Faire grounds in McDade, Tx. Patrons were treated to a wide variety of entertainments. Authentic Celtic music performed by bands who came from as far away as Ireland, traditional dances from the Celtic lands and feats of strength such as the hammer throw and the caber toss were among the offerings. But it was the archery games that stole the show.

The most popular event by far was the Old World style archery tournament put on by the Sherwood Forrest Archers. Each archer was formally announced and approached the shooting line to shoot three arrows at a burlap circle target. The three highest scoring archers had a one arrow final shoot-off. The tournament winner for Saturday was Austin Archery Club member Don Furguson. On Sunday the honor went to Sherwood Forrest archer Cody Dalton. Second place went to Tara Koonce. The crowd absolutely loved it!

The Archery Village was another very busy place. This was our outreach program. People crowded close to listen as Derek Herring of Bountyhunter Traditional Arrows explained the complicated business of building and matching arrows to both bow and archer. Onlookers watched in fascination as Arvin Weaver, the selfbowman, scraped away at osage staves and tried to keep the wind from blowing his kilt up above his waist. From ten o'clock in the morning until seven o'clock in the evening, Matt Hamilton and Deb stood in the hot sun and introduced a steady stream of men, women and children to the very real magic of shooting the stick and string. Hopes are high that archery clubs in Austin, Bastrop, Dallas, Ft. Worth San Antonio, and Beaumont will see an increase in membership. Yes, the first annual Celtic Festival was a success.

LSBA Youth Hunt at Bugscuffle Ranch
A Weekend that will Last a Lifetime

By: Michael Smith

First off I want to say thank you to LSBA and Bugscuffle Ranch and everyone involved in helping make this happen. I feel like this is a great thing to help pass on the tradition to the next generation. It shows how much fun it is to go out with friends of all kinds new and old and just have a good time. Saturday, October 8th I had my first traditional bow kill. Everyone told everyone good luck and off we went to our stands. I got to sit in stand four and when I got there it was way too dark to see but the sound of the creek behind me was pretty cool. After sitting for a while the sun started coming up and I tried my best to see if there was anything coming in and after glancing around for a while something caught my attention coming down the road. Well from what I saw I had a good idea of what it was and sure enough it came around the corner and got straight to eating. It was my second time to see a wild hog and this one was by far the biggest, so of course my heart got to pounding with the wind hitting me right in the face. I stood up as slow as possible and did not have to wait long for a good shot. After I let go of the arrow I felt real good. I heard a loud thump and couldn't see my arrow anywhere. So I said a quick prayer thanking the Lord and sat back down. Not ten minutes after that I looked over and there was a deer with its neck sticking out of the clearing and I got right back up and went to shaking. It came right out and presented a good shot, so I took it. Again I heard a loud thump and all I could see was my broadhead and a little bit of the arrow, so I said another prayer and sat back down. I tried being patient while waiting for them to come and get me, but it was driving me crazy. A little later I had a spike and another doe come in together and after missing the spike, I couldn't get another shot so I sat back down and waited. Finally I could hear the truck coming. Bryan walked up and before I could get down I was telling him as quietly as possible "we got a big pig and a doe to look for!" and man did it feel good. After finding a blood trail that lead to the creek, he said "let's go get Bowman and get your animals", and just as we started down the road one of my new friend's mother looked out her window and spotted my first bow kill, yelling, "there is his hog!". I almost hit the ceiling of the truck trying to see it. That's a sight I will never forget, that big thing looking right towards the road, lying on his belly, dead. I jumped out of the truck and couldn't stop smiling. After getting Bowman, his blood tracking border collie, and all my new friends, Dawson, Graham, Madison, Leslie, Alex, Michael Smith, my Dad and the two coolest guides ever, Bryan Keeling and Bryant Stein, we all loaded up with Bowman and headed out for the deer. After crossing the creek, Bryan started yelling, "Get 'em Bowman" and I got a rush of excitement. Bowman held the deer down and I said "thank you Lord", just before putting him down. I will never forget that weekend or all of the amazing people I got to meet and spend the most amazing three days of my life with. Yet again I want to say thank you to everyone who made this happen; Bugscuffle Ranch Bryan and Debbie Keeling, TBOT President Bud Murphy, TBOT Vice-President Bryant Stein, TBOT Secretary Brenda Stein, LSBA's Brad Adams, and TBOT Representative Todd Smith. I can't wait to see everyone again!

Although this hunt was sponsored by LSBA, TBoT was out in force assisting with the hunt. During the midday hours there was a 3D shoot set up and stick bows were put in the hands of all these young hunters!
